

BIO

Born 14-8-1984 in the Central province of Quang Tri, Alan Nguyen is currently living and working in Dong Nai Province. He is a self-taught artist with unyielding passion for art.

His paintings do not render images of the beautiful women or scenery but are portraits of contemporary people with writhe, insecurity, sadness and sorrow. His paintings depict the human beings who have gone through much hardship, tough living condition, and fought with nature for survival.

Alan wants to strip the true feelings that the characters hide behind their faces. The fates, stories of people around him are always the endless inspiration for the artist to paint. He loves to paint and never stop learning how to paint as he believes he was born to be an artist.

His paintings have been exhibited in many group exhibitions like Dogma final exhibition Viet Nam 2012.
