

BIO

Tran Thi Ngoc Hue (b. 1972, Saigon, Vietnam)

She is an artist and arts collector, studied Basic Drawing in Ho Chi Minh City Fine Arts Association in 2012 and Western Painting at the Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts in 2013 – 2014. Her profound love for arts started since she was a small child where she depicted beautiful imagination into drawings.

As a collector and artist, Hue has forged a great understanding between the canvas and herself. She has been intrigued by the abstract expressionism of the strong and rough strokes to the paintings that reminds her of the childhood filled with bamboo trees and rice fields.

Hue's works are a constant exploration between her childhood dreams in line with contemporary arts; striving to construct a situation that we appear not to think but to relate through experiences and memories.
